

BOIDIER HURST
SCOUT CAMP SITE - CHILD PROTECTION

Young People First

It is the policy of the Scout Association to safeguard the welfare of all members by protecting them from physical, sexual and emotional harm

All camp site users have a responsibility for the supervision of their own youth members' programmes within the rules of their own organisations and will be expected to abide by the Scout Association's good practice guide for adults whilst using the camp site.

All adults within your party must have been deemed suitable to work with young people by your organisation.

All adults within a Scout Association party must have been provided with a copy of the Scout Association's good practice guide "Young People First" and have to abide by it.

All adults within your party must be informed that contravention of the code of practice could lead to them being asked to leave the site and the Scout Association initiating its reporting and referral procedures.
